Highlights:

California Northstate University College of Medicine (CNUCOM) is an allopathic medical education program approved by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) and preliminary accredited by the Liaison Committee on Medical Education (LCME). The curriculum uses a horizontally- and vertically integrated interdisciplinary clinical presentation approach. Clinical presentations (patients' chief complaints) are the framework for building basic and clinical science knowledge. The integrated curriculum introduces the students to basic and clinical sciences for the first two years. A community-based, clinical training model is being adopted in the third and fourth years.

Applications will be reviewed upon receipt. For full consideration, candidates should provide curriculum vitae with at least three references. All candidates are asked to provide a cover letter, articulating how their knowledge, experience, and beliefs have prepared them to function in support of California Northstate University's vision and mission statements.
